COURTS CONVEENE:

Circuit Court—First Monday in February, June and October.
Chancery Court—First Tuesday after fourth Monday in February and first Tuesday after first Monday in August.

Wednesday, Sept. 29, 1915.

A "popular" vote has just been taken in South Carolina on a subject of large local interest, which is said to have induced "an exciting campaign."

Yet only about 50,000 votes were cast, though South Carolina has a population of a million and a half and 335,000 men of voting age. Even eliminating the colored votes, as South Carolina does in defiance of the Federal Constitution, there are more than 165,000 white voters in the State.

Yet less than one-third of the electorate decides questions for South Carolina. Ultimately this little oligarchy might decide questions for the Nation, because the small group who vote in South Carolina might send two Senators to Washington who would hold the deciding votes on a question of great importance.

The two Senators from South Carolina are chairmen of the important committees on naval affairs and on immigration; it is evident how far the minority vote of South Carolina now exerts an influence on national problems.

Owing to the tremendous demand of England for burlap, there promises to be a decided shortage for the world. That will mean a slight advance in price of grain for the bags that hold it as much as a part of the cost as any other feature of the grain market.

Burlap bags have been increasing in price for over a year and this last announcement comes to importers in the nature of alarming conditions.

There is a redeeming feature to it, however. With the strongly increased upward tendency of burlap it will mean that much more of the cheap grades of cotton will find a market to supply the shortage.

This again demonstrates the old adage: "There is never a loss but there is a corresponding gain some where."

Rev. Tom Jimison, while holding a revival in Harriman recently, is credited with the following utterance: "There is no difference in a crowd of society women getting together in a parlor and playing bridge for a prize and a bunch of niggers shooting craps down on Tin Can Alley."

However much any person may take exception to the utterance no person can charge him with slurring the lowly and unimportant and excusing the upper tens for similar conduct; similar so far as the statutory law is concerned. After all most people would prefer the parlor game and the parlor associates.

It takes the North Carolina or Kentucky moonshiner to produce the unheard of and most effective jag. This time it comes from North Carolina.

Moonshiners there are making what is called "monkey rum". It is made from molasses and certain unknown chemicals. After "getting right" a saucer full of it will burn for five minutes when lighted. The "monkey rum jag" lasts three times as long as a whiskey drunk and ends in delirium tremens of the latest and most approved type, which takes a man to the brink of the grave, it no farther.

We haven't taken any large chunk of the half billion war loan to the allies nor are we going to. Neither do the Germans need to expect us to finance their war. Of course almost any country newspaper man could easily dig up the small sum of half a billion dollars, but for one we are not going to do it.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell."

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

We intend to leave our money in the Crossville bank where we know it will be safe when we want to buy a railroad, the United States Steel Company or any other bauble that we happen to fancy.

Germany put ten millions into wireless stations shortly before war broke out. That amount was saved many times over by one message sent broadcast to her ships when war did come. She sent out the little message: "War declared, make for neutral port."

Another instance of German foresight and thrift.

A traveling bag has been invented by a Norwegian that may be converted into a life preserver and the wearer can remain in the water four or five days in safety. It is also provided with a compartment for carrying food, sufficient for several days, according to the Scientific American.

It has been found that the great Galveston sea wall withstood the recent hurricane and is in a perfectly safe condition, even where much damage was done to the walks above the wall and where the wall had large portions of the dirt and backing removed from the rear of it.

Turkey is said to be having fun with Armenians again, killing them by the thousands. No harm in that, from the Turkish standpoint, but most civilized nations do not favor the butchery of innocent women and children.

COUGHS THAT ARE STOPPED!

Careful people see that they are stopped. Dr. King's New Discovery is a remedy of tried merit. It has held its own on the market for 46 years. Youth and old age testify to its soothing and healing qualities. Pneumonia and lung troubles are often caused by delay of treatment. Dr. King's New Discovery stops those hacking coughs and relieves la grippe tendencies. Money back if it fails. 50c and $1.00. 2.

ONE WAY

People have very different ideas some times as to the manner in which they wish to "shuffle off this mortal coil." This is the way a Kentucky editor prefers:

"At the present writing we have no desire to hurl ourselves into Abraham's bosom, but if we ever do we wouldn't lean against a double-barrel shotgun and pull the trigger, as many do. Neither would we chop our head off with an amateur guillotine, eat a square meal of rat poison, blow out the gas, drink concentrated lye, sit down on the lap of a buzzsaw, smoke a cigarette, or call a Kentuckian a liar or a poor judge of whiskey. We would simply get out an edition of our paper in which we would strive to the very best of our ability to print the plain, square-toed truth about people, as we understand it, and then calmly await the end."

If he thinks the end would be calm he has another think coming to him, for from our experience, his taking away would certainly be very stormy.

WILL NOT END.

Every scholar knows, and if he does not know, he ought to know, that the Lord never said the material world would come to an end.

The several expressions translated the end of the world, all are the Greek word "aion," which does not mean world at all. "Aion" means age, a period of time or an exceedingly long time. The end of the age is predicted, but not the end of the world.

The Israelitish church came to an end when the Lord instituted the Apostolic church. This church, in developing, passed through different ages and came to an end through the overwhelming environment of idolatry and polytheism, which finally took the form of the belief in three divine persons and the justification through faith alone.

The end of the age was the loss of all definite knowledge concerning the soul life after death and the nature of God. The new age will be distinguished from the preceding ones by the worship of the visible God, the Lord Jesus Christ, who is the only God in heaven or earth; and by the possession of the Word divinely opened whereby access is had to all truth; even as possessed by the angels and by a life of enlightened faith joined with a life of charity.

The world will never come to an end, nor will the development of the new age ever cease. The primary source of the feeling so general, that great changes are impending, is the presence of the Spirit of this new age, as it flows from the Lord out of heaven. The endeavor in this spirit is to enlighten and remove evil, turn affliction to spiritual profit, good will and peace, and bring the kingdom of heaven unto the earth. Samuel Cline.
